

Puppy Speak Definitions

Too Too Much hung his head.

"Guilty" --- The pup felt sorry for upsetting Mr. Teeply.

Too Too Much laid down and tucked his tail.

"Nervous" --- The pup knew he had upset someone.

Too Too Much tilted his head to the side and wagged his tail.

"Listening" --- The pup heard the bell ring to the pet shop, the first ring of the day.

Too Too Much blinked his eyes fast.

"Thinking" --- The pup is going home with Mr. MacTiggle, but wondering why it's only on a trial basis.

Too Too Much's ears suddenly pointed up. He squirmed in her arms and licked her cheeks.

"Friendliness" (Ears suddenly pointed up) --- The pup is very excited to meet Mrs. MacTiggle.

"Affection" (Licked her cheeks) --- The pup likes Mrs. MacTiggle.

Too Too Much laid his head on the floor and splayed out his front paws.

"Playfulness" --- The pup wants to play tag too.